
FACULTY SENATE

“The Faculty Senate shall be the representative body of the faculty, deriving its authority from the faculty as per the Collective Bargaining Agreement. Its primary function shall be to serve as the agency by which the faculty can actively participate in the governance and policy-making decisions of the University on the basis of the principle of shared authority.” (Faculty Senate Constitution, Section I).

President’s Report to the Faculty Senate – October 4, 2017

1. The P&T Information Session with the Provost was held on Monday 10/2/17 and many faculty attended. After welcoming greetings from Provost Prezant and myself, Dr. Pettigrew, Chair of the P&T committee presented the new revisions to the evaluation process. Questions were answered and if any further information is needed, faculty can contact Dr. Pettigrew.
2. The P&T Information Session for DEC members and Department Chairpersons is scheduled for Friday, 10/6, at 1-3 pm at the ASC Theater.
3. Mark your calendars for the National Coming Out Day, 7 pm, on Wednesday 10/11/17 in ASC 217, for a conversation with President Joe and President Ojakian on their experiences as out leaders.
4. The All-University elections were posted on the FS website and are attached to this report.
