THE ELM
SHAKESPEARE
COMPANY
IS THE RESIDENT,
PROFESSIONAL
THEATRE COMPANY
AT SOUTHERN

As a student at SCSU Theatre, you will have unparalleled access to working with the very best theater professionals as guest artists and designers – all of whom have Broadway and Off-Broadway experiences and immediate connections to the performance industry. Our location in New Haven means our students will engage in the highest quality artistic experiences – including our outstanding regional award-winning theater companies.

PROGRAM FEATURES

Theatre, B.A. | Our B.A. program offers opportunities for students to engage in every facet of theater — from page to stage. Theater students take classes in acting, dancing, elocution, design, technical theater, history, and dramaturgy. Our students have ample opportunity to apply their classroom knowledge in our four-show season where they are closely mentored by outstanding faculty professionals. Internship opportunities include: Long Wharf Theatre, Hartford Stage, The Elm Shakespeare Company, and Goodspeed Musicals and the New Haven public schools. The program also offers a pathway to teacher certification in theater.

Minor in Theatre | Southern offers an 18-credit minor.

Production Facilities | The department is housed in the 1,568-seat John Lyman Center for the Performing Arts. We use two performance/rehearsal spaces, two shops, and six dressing rooms.

- Lyman Mainstage
- Robert E. Kendall Drama Lab
- Scenic Design Laboratory
- Costume Shop

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

The emphasis we have on experience-based learning results in high rates of post-graduate employment. Recent graduates have gone on to jobs in film and television, education, regional theatre, and New York theatre. They are actors, producers, stage managers, teachers, make-up artists, ballroom dancers, marketing directors, event managers, designers, and technicians. They have also gone on to top tier graduate programs in arts management, educational theatre, film studies, playwriting, and design.
